Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, George Filcher has long been a valued employee of United Parcel Service; and,

WHEREAS, George has determined to retire from the rigors of his job in the delivery business after faithful and dedicated service to the people of his community and the larger community of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, George will now have more time to devote to his favorite pastime and we are all confident that with this renewed emphasis on catching the big one, he will be receiving weekly Proud Angler awards; and,

WHEREAS, George's friends and neighbors are gathering in his honor on Saturday, August 10, 1985, to wish him well as he retires; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of South Dakota's special citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 10, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I join his wife, Charlene, and their many friends and relatives in wishing George a happy, rewarding retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
